The above Engraving represents the interior of the most splendid establishment of its kind in the City of New-York—in the Union—probably in the world. Its decorations and furniture cost upwards of $16,000, a larger sum than was ever before expended upon any Hair Dressing Establishment since time began. The Fresco work of the ceiling, by De Lamano, is a brilliant triumph of a brilliant Art. One side of the Apartment is walled with $5,000 worth of mirrors. The washstand, with its statuary, costs $1,500. The marble floor $1,500. The magnificent shaving chairs $100 each, 15 in number, and the silver toilet services about $2,000. All luxury and comfort that taste, skill and money could crowd within the space, has been accomplished, and

PHALON'S

HAIR DRESSING ESTABLISHMENT,

IN THE ST. NICHOLAS HOUSE, NEW-YORK.

Is as great a lion in its way as the palace of St. Mark in Venice. The Baths, on the lower floor, were fitted up at an expense of $5,000, and are the finest in the city.